

HELL

GEOLOGICAL SITE

...millions of years in the making

Here are some photographs of the Hell Geological Site over the years, these images span from the 1930s through the 1970s. Images displayed are from the photographic collections of the Cayman Islands National Archive.

IMAGES ARE NOT FOR REPRODUCTION

Limestone rock formation - 1938

Hell, West Bay - 1938

IMAGES ARE NOT FOR REPRODUCTION

Girl sitting on rock formations in Hell, West Bay - 1938

Hell, West Bay - 1942

Young boy standing barefoot on jagged Hell rock - 1952 (Courtesy of Lindsey Terry)

IMAGES ARE NOT FOR REPRODUCTION

John Mitchell gazing at a turtle on edge of "Hell Hole" - 1942
Hell Hole was used as an inland water kraal (an enclosure for cattle or other livestock).

HRH Duke of Edinburgh with Administrator Jack Rose inspecting unique rock formation at Hell, West Bay, 1960s -1970s

Hell, West Bay - 1973

IMAGES ARE NOT FOR REPRODUCTION

Hell, West Bay - 1973

Looking out from the jagged rock of Hell, West Bay -1960s

Couple at Hell, West Bay, 1960s - 1970s